Ballet and b-ball

WHILE Knicks center Tyson Chandler was at Madison Square Garden helping his team pummel the Pacers, his wife, Kimberly, was visiting the Apollo Theater for the first time. The Chandlers were honorary chairs of the Ailey at the Apollo Gala Monday night, where dancers from the prestigious school founded by Alvin Ailey performed. While Tyson had a good excuse for being elsewhere, Kimberly arrived at the benefit at the famed 125th Street venue with their daughter, Sacha-Marie, and the pair headed to meet him after the performance. Other festively dressed guests stayed for a dinner and after-party in a tent behind the Apollo and boogied along with the Ailey dancers to DJ Kiss.
