

ALVIN AILEY AMERICAN DANCE THEATER

SEAN AARON CARMON (Beaumont, TX) attended New York University's Tisch School of the Arts and later graduated from the Ailey/Fordham B.F.A. Program in Dance. He was a member of Elisa Monte Dance and subsequently originated the role of Phaedra in the 2010 Tony Award–winning revival of La Cage Aux Folles. Mr. Carmon also performed in the Broadway production of The Phantom of the Opera. He has appeared as a guest artist with the International Dance Association in Italy and with the Cape Dance Company in South Africa. As a choreographer and jazz teacher, he has taught at and set works, both original and as a répétiteur, on numerous high schools, colleges and for the Youth American Grand Prix competition. Mr. Carmon joined the Company in 2011.

“Among the expert and diligent dancers cast in Chroma [Sean A. Carmon] especially stands out.”
-The Wall Street Journal

“...technically strong and a discriminating artist.”
-The New York Observer
