The image shows a YouTube video player interface. The video thumbnail features a man with glasses and a striped shirt, with a play button overlay. Below the thumbnail, there is a red progress bar and a subtitle that reads: "Llega de otra manera al público e incluye personas de otras comunidades y etnias." The video player controls include a play button, a volume icon, a timestamp of 02:04 / 07:55, social media sharing icons for Facebook and Twitter, and a toggle for "AUTOREPRODUCCION SI". Below the player, there is a description: "ESPN Dance te muestra por dentro a una de las compañías afroamericanas de danza más grandes del mundo." To the right of the description is a rating section labeled "Votación:" with five stars, four of which are filled. A double arrow icon is visible on the far right of the player area.

“Dance ESPN shows you inside one of the largest African-American dance companies in the world.”
