

NYC Dance Week kicks off

June 18, 2015

New York City welcomes Dance Week, a citywide festival that celebrates the joy and benefits of dance from June 18-27.

The Ailey Extension is taking part in the festival, not only through the Lincoln Center performances, but also by offering some free classes to new students at the Ailey.

The complete free class schedule is here (link), and classes are only free to first time students.
